

THE FAN

I waited in line four hours for this ticket, Ya see it? Row J seat 102. Maria sat next to me, 104 on the left. JJ Johnny was hot! All in leather and metal. Started with, "Step On It ." That's Maria's favorite. She almost fainted. I like "Sunday's Rain" from the second album. When he sings that he's singing for me. I know it. I feel it.

There were these guys behind us with some, ya know, wine coolers. They started hitting on us, mostly Maria cus she looks older. She was wearing this tight tank top with no bra and a short black leather mini skirt. I said she looked like a tramp. She did. Soon these three guys, there were three of them, Tony, Pete, and Sean, yeah that's right Sean, were sitting right next to us. They weren't interested in me, just Maria.

JJ was singing his heart out and one of these guys, Tony I think, was making out with Maria. His hands were all over her. I couldn't believe it.

We went to the ladies room. I always hate it there, it smells so bad. I asked Maria what she thought she was doing. She said to chill. That's her favorite word. I think she was a little drunk. Must of had two or three of those wine coolers.

They were waiting for us, like vultures. Sean was paying attention to me. Pete and Tony were with Maria. I don't know how they decided on that arrangement. Sean was nice. I told him up front that I was only fourteen so he didn't try anything, just a little kissing.

To read the remainder of this sketch please purchase it